Junk Elves knows you're busy and values your time. The Junk Elves removal team moves with care and efficiency to arrive on time and complete the work quickly, so you can get back to more important things. Your time is important which is why Junk Elves offers flexible scheduling options throughout the week and even the weekend and can typically offer same or next day service, when needed. Residential and commercial Junk Elves is the removal company that handles the tough stuff at a low cost to you. Junk Elves ensures that your junk is donated, recycled, or otherwise disposed of responsibly.

So how Junk Elves Junk Removal Service Work?

1. They schedule a 2-hour window for an on-site estimate with you, based on your preferred availability.
2. They provide you with an upfront estimate, based on the space your items will take up in the truck
3. They will then remove your items right then and there or schedule you for a future appointment, if that's more convenient for you

Junk Elves uses a state of the art truck, among the largest in the junk removal industry with the ability to hold up to 16 cubic yards! That's more than 20% more volume capacity than their competitors. This gives you better pricing and less waiting time.
